A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thanksgiving has come and gone, the reasons to celebrate thanksgiving are ongoing.

This is the time of year to say thank you. It's the time to acknowledge the congregants whose efforts have kept Temple Beth Or functioning.

The Minyanaires who provide a place for yahrzeits as well as celebrations. They insure that we have Friday night and Shabbat services.

The Men's Club whose ongoing efforts served as High Holiday set up, book exchange, setting up extra seating, putting up and taking down the Sukkah, presenting speakers, social events and fundraising. Look for the Yom Hashoah candles. Check the Highlights and lobby for upcoming events.

Sisterhood, first and foremost, congratulations on a record setting Gift Auction. Their ongoing programs are timely and interesting. Check the Highlights for dates and times.

- December 8, Designer Bag Bingo
- December 17, Chanukah party and boutique

Please support their efforts.

The Mitzvah Group's outreach to those in our congregation that are in need. Whether it is a reassuring phone call, friendly visit (home and hospital) or a card, they reassure our congregants that they are not forgotten.

Our Membership Committee is putting together a comprehensive plan to look for new members, retain current members and reach out to former members. Your Board has used their combined expertise and commitment to plan and strategize to keep Temple Beth Or a vital part of our community.

Most of all to our volunteers. Be it Bingo, exchanging prayer books, fixing electrical outlets, changing light bulbs, being a 10 and everything else that you do, THANK YOU!

To our staff, Sarah our secretary and Grace who not only keeps the Temple clean but also helps at dinners and Onegs, THANK YOU!

To Rabbi Rubin, who is always available to do tasks beyond his religious duties, THANK YOU!

THE Temple and your community is truly blessed with all of you.

I would like to wish everyone a wonderful holiday season, with family and friends. Please continue to be part of our Temple Beth Or community. See you all next year.

- Sandi

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

Chanukah is coming!

The holiday of Chanukah is fun to celebrate and also has much to teach us!

Sure, on Chanukah we light candles in a special Chanukah menorah (in Hebrew: chanukiah) and play games with a special spinning top (in Hebrew: sevivon, in Yiddish: dreidel). We eat fried potato pancakes (in Hebrew: levivot, in Yiddish: latkes) and jelly doughnuts (in Hebrew: sufganiot), exchange gifts including the option of money (in Yiddish: gelt) and spend festive time with each other.

In an ancient debate recorded in the Talmud, there was a disagreement on the lighting of the Chanukah lights (presumably olive oil lamps rather than today's candles). The School of Shammai taught that we should light eight lights on the first night and then decrease by one each night ó 7, 6, 5, eventually down to 1 on the last night. The School of Hillel taught that we should light one light on the first night and then increase by one each night ó 2, 3, 4, eventually up to 8 on the last night. In both approaches, the Shamash light does not count in the required number as it is the worker light lighting the others.

The Talmud discusses various possible reasons for the two opinions. One of the reasons given for Beit Hillel's opinion is that we should go up in holiness and not down.

The Talmud records an observation that in one town, two different elders were lighting their Chanukah lights in the two different ways ó one lighting 8 to 1 following the School of Shammai and one lighting 1 to 8 following the School of Hillel.

Today, we follow the opinion of the School of Hillel and light 1 to 8 and we do want to increase the holiness in the world. However, even as we follow that approach, we learn from this Talmudic discussion the importance of respect for other opinions and respect for the people who hold those opinions that disagree with ours.

We will have disagreements and debates over various issues and matters of concern with many people in different circumstances. Chanukah teaches us that there is room for that disagreement and difference of opinion even as we follow one particular approach and not the other.

Let us learn to treasure our differences even as we celebrate our unity this Chanukah. Chag Chanukah Sameach ó Have a happy Chanukah holiday!

MISHEBERACH PRAYER

When someone near and dear to us is ill, a spiritual uplift can be very meaningful. This is done in Jewish tradition by reciting a Misheberach prayer on the days we take out the Torah.

If you would like a Misheberach said and are not able to attend the service, please call Temple Beth Or office or email us.

We need the person's Hebrew name and the mother's Hebrew name, so that a prayer will be done for you.
