A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The month of July has been very busy for the committees of Temple Beth Or.

We reopened Bingo on July 23 in accordance with government guidelines. Thank you to Pat Hann, for his super support and constructing the safety barriers for our temple volunteers. Thank you to Rachel, for making sure that we did everything we needed to do to open safely.

The Membership Committee is finalizing the information collected in the surveys to reach out to the community to get new members.

The Mitzvah Group has been reaching out to our members to see if they are okay .

Strategic Planning Committee is waiting for an appointment with Brick Township to finalize our plans to keep Temple Beth Or as a vibrant part of our community.

The Ritual Committee is planning for the High Holiday services. We have hired a cantor for this year's service. As soon as plans are finalized we will reach out to the congregation with the plans and you can decide how you wish to attend. This is a meaningful time of year and we will be able to celebrate the holidays, though in a more unusual manner.

As we go forward into the next couple of months be safe. Keep reading the emails, and we will be in touch about the Holiday services.

Sandi Silber

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

Moving Forward

It might seem hard to think about moving forward. As I wrote last month, many feel stuck in place. However, Judaism teaches us to think ahead, hope and build for the future and move forward into it.

At Temple Beth Or, we are moving into the future. There are various plans being developed for us to celebrate and participate in the coming High Holidays (and Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah) and Shabbat.

This year will be very different, and we will be called upon to connect with each other and with the holidays in new ways. Due to the continuing COVID-19 crisis, we have no choice. We want to stay healthy and we want to observe the coming holidays. We are working on ways for us to do both.

We also need to be flexible as the virus conditions may change. We will have to adapt to any new developments with changes in our plans.

As we develop our plans to move forward, we will inform you, the congregants, on a regular basis. Look for official notices from President Sandi Silber, Ritual Director Robert Ostrove and me. We ask that you rely on these official notices and not on whatever rumors or statements that you hear circulating around. In this way, we can get you information accurately, consistently and often. If you have questions about the information provided, please contact us.

The joke in Israel is: When you wake up in the morning, short-term planning is what to have for breakfast while long-term planning is for this afternoon. We will need to be doing short-term planning and long-term planning (for longer than just this afternoon) all the while continuing to monitor the situation around us.

Following Tisha B'Av (Ninth of Av, this year on July 29-30), the Memorial Day for the loss and destruction of Jerusalem and the Holy Temple (by the Babylonians in 586 BCE and by the Romans in 70 CE), there are seven Shabbatot/Sabbaths of comfort and rebuilding that lead us to Rosh Hashanah and the new year.

May we move forward together through the current crisis helping to comfort and support one other as we rebuild our community and our world.

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

MISHEBERACH PRAYER

When someone near and dear to us is ill, a spiritual uplift can be very meaningful. This is done in Jewish tradition by reciting a "Misheberach" prayer on the days we take out the Torah.

If you would like a Misheberach said and are not able to attend the service, please call Temple Beth Or office or email us.

We need the person's Hebrew name and the mother's Hebrew name, so that a prayer will be done for you.
