Temple Beth Or
(Hebrew for "House of Light")

Temple Beth Or is an egalitarian inclusive Conservative congregation, modern yet reverent to the Jewish tradition. The congregation is made up of singles, couples and families. We welcome all members of our community, including interfaith families, and feel that a congregation should be a friendly welcoming place and the anchor of a caring community. It reaches out to its members relating to their needs and interests and to the larger Jewish and general community as well. Temple Beth Or is affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Sandi Silber

As we approach the High Holidays, the Ritual Committee is working hard to put together the schedule and rules for the High Holidays. We are going to share a safe and meaningful service for our congregation. Cantor Haimowitz will be leading the cantorial part of the service alongside Rabbi Rubin. Look for the information in the mail. I hope we can enjoy the services as a congregation.

The Strategic Planning Committee is visiting proposed sites and we hope to have positive information as soon as possible.

The Men's Club and Sisterhood have provided programs to keep our congregation going. We have had services for Shabbat as well as Shavuot. Temple Beth Or is a functioning Temple.

The office is open every day from 9AM until 1PM. Our phone messaging system is monitored every day. If you need to reach us call the office.

Stay safe and read the information we send out.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

It is Time to Reflect

Rosh Hashanah is coming. The month of Elul comes before it. Even this month of Elul is a time for “cheshbon hanefesh” (an accounting of the soul) – a time to reflect on where we are and how we got here.

This self-reflection applies to us as individuals and to us as a community.

As individuals, we consider what we have done well in the past year and what we have not done so well. What can we improve in ourselves? In what areas do we need to pay more attention? What good things can we strengthen? What bad things can we fix? As individuals, we think about how we can move positively into the future.

As communities, we also consider what we have done well in the past year and what we have not done so well. This applies to our larger national American and world-wide human societies. This also applies to our local Temple Beth Or community.

This past year has been a difficult one – for many individuals and for our congregation. There have been changes in routine and in our daily patterns of life. There has been uncertainty to what we face next – as individuals and as a congregation.

The month of Elul guides us to look at our reality and find our way to move forward as the end of Elul leads immediately into Rosh Hashanah and the new year ahead.

The shofar is sounded throughout Elul (other than on Shabbat and erev Rosh Hashanah) to call us to action, to wake us up to our situation and push us to make things better.

May we come together – as individuals and as a community – to accept the challenge and rise to the occasion, and help one another to not only face our future but to shape it for the better.

Jewish Representation in the Classroom

A Presentation by Dylan Black

Dylan Black was assigned a project by his teacher, Mr. Joe Nappi, at Monmouth Regional High School called "Be The Change," where he was assigned to identify a problem the students are passionate about and help "be the change" a make a solution of the problem. Dylan chose to research Jewish representation in the classroom and presented his findings in a presentation to show at Professional Development Days to guide teachers in teaching students that Jewish history is more than the Holocaust. Dylan has collaborated with Rabbi Sagal of Congregation B'nai Israel in Rumson, Sara Brown, Executive Director at CHHANGE, and Jessica Solomon, Executive Director at the Jewish Heritage Museum. The Jewish Heritage Museum welcomes Dylan Black to present his research to the community members and show the importance of stories of strength instead of stories of pain.

August 11th, 12th, 13th

Aharon has devoted his life to raising his son Uri. They live together in a gentle routine, away from the real world. But Uri is autistic, and now as a young adult it might be time for him to live in a specialized home. While on their way to the institution, Aharon decides to run away with his son and hits the road, knowing that Uri is not ready for this separation. Or is it, in fact, his father who is not ready?

$10 per film or $18 for both films

You may watch the film at anytime on the screening dates.

For more information or to make a reservation, contact the Museum at 732-252-6990 or visit our website www.jhmomc.org.

You will receive a link which is good for viewing the film at any time between the dates mentioned above.

August 25, 26th, 27th

A split-second decision at a traffic accident triggers repercussions for a Jewish surgeon and a neo-Nazi's daughter, in this gripping, potent drama. Simone, a Holocaust survivor's son, rushes to the scene of a hit-and-run. But when he sees a swastika tattoo on the victim's chest, he leaves the gravely wounded man to his fate. Wracked with guilt, the anguished doctor confronts the ethics of his choice, and bonds with the victim's daughter Marcia embroiling himself in greater conflict.
