A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & RABBI

By Sandi Silber and Rabbi Robert Rubin

L'shanah Tovah – Happy New Year

A new year gives us new opportunities, new ways of doing things and new relationships to build – with each other and with God. One way to connect with others and with God is to attend a prayer service and help make the minyan.

Please join us at St. Thomas Lutheran Church in their neutral gym for in-person services. We had thought that this Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur we would be in our own home. Sadly, this is not so. However, the search goes on and the Congregation continues to operate.

The good news is that our Ritual Committee along with Rabbi Rubin and Cantor Haimowitz have planned beautiful and meaningful High Holiday services this year. Please join us. Just after Yom Kippur comes Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah with even more opportunities to come together and celebrate.

The Men's Club and Sisterhood are continuing plans to engage congregants in programs for enrichment and camaraderie. Adult Jewish Learning courses are being planned. Please read the emails and flyers and join us.

Temple Beth Or will have a new home in Brick despite any bad press and rumors that are going around. We will persevere and come out whole.

A congregation is more than just a group of members ("more than the sum of its parts"). A congregation provides us with opportunities to help each other, strengthen each other and impact the world around us for good things.

Happy New Year, a Healthy New Year and Next Year in Jerusalem, or, if not Jerusalem, in Temple Beth Or's new home!

MISHEBERACH PRAYER

When someone near and dear to us is ill, a spiritual uplift can be very meaningful. This is done in Jewish tradition by reciting a "Misheberach" prayer on the days we take out the Torah.

If you would like a Misheberach said and are not able to attend the service, please call Temple Beth Or's office or email us at TempleBethOrBrick@gmail.com

We need the person's Hebrew name and the mother's Hebrew name, so that a prayer will be done for you.
