

Temple Beth Or The Vine

Temple Beth Or

(Hebrew for "House of Light")

Temple Beth Or is an egalitarian inclusive Conservative congregation, modern yet reverent to the Jewish tradition. The congregation is made up of singles, couples and families. We welcome all members of our community, including interfaith families, and feel that a congregation should be a friendly welcoming place and the anchor of a caring community. It reaches out to its members relating to their needs and interests and to the larger Jewish and general community as well. Temple Beth Or is affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

Oh Chanukah, Oh Chanukah . . .

The holiday of Chanukah has many aspects and components. Which of the following items is Chanukah to you?

Lighting the Chanukah Menorah (Chanukiah) The miracle of Jewish survival over the millennia Publicizing the miracle of the oil lasting longer than expected Bringing light into the world to dispel darkness Increasing holiness in the world as we go each night from one candle to eight Coming together with family and/or friends Reflecting on the pressures to assimilate and give up Judaism - in ancient Greek times and today Remembering the fighting that occurred among Jewish groups and the resulting civil war Fighting an outside enemy who wanted to control us The bravery of the Maccabees to stand up for what they believed Treasuring religious freedom Incorporating some parts of non-Jewish culture into Jewish life Spinning dreidel and playing games Eating latkes and/or jelly doughnuts (sufganiot) Presents for the children and each other Gifts of money (gelt) Chocolate coins Singing songs Other things that you can add ...

Actually, Chanukah can be ALL OF THE ABOVE! Enjoy the Holiday!

Afterlives: Recovering the Lost Stories of Looted Art

"Visit" this special exhibit at the Jewish Museum in New York City while at home (or anywhere)

Learn the stories behind the works in the exhibition, and enjoy the opportunity to ask questions of the live tour guide while on Zoom.

Henri Matisse – Girl in Yellow and Blue with Guitar (The Art Institute of Chicago)

Thursday night, December 30, 7:00 PM

During World War II, untold numbers of artworks and cultural property were stolen by Nazi forces and, after the war, an estimated one million artworks and 2.5 million books were recovered. Afterlives chronicles the stories of the objects looted from Jewish families including works by renowned artists such as Paul Cézanne, Marc Chagall, Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso, and Camille Pissarro.

To access the tour, you will receive a Zoom link. General admission – $10 per Zoom access Sponsor – $36 (helps Temple Beth Or provide even more programs) This event is part of the Temple Beth Or adult education program.

Paid registration required by Monday, December 27.

Return this form with payment to Temple Beth Or, P.O. Box 789, Brick, NJ 08723 by December 27.

/OLUNTEER Be Prepared – CERT is Community Emergency Response Team, a nationwide volunteer organization which most towns have. It backs up First Responders. Members are trained on what to do before, during and after a disaster, including basic first aid, CPR, fire safety, light search & rescue and triage. CERT members have assisted with evacuations, food & water distribution, fire and Super Storm Sandy as well as at township events, such as Summerfest, Night Against Crime and Trunk or Treat. When disaster strikes, those trained are able to assist the police and EMS, help themselves and help their neighbors. Successful completion of a CERT course, which includes a written & practical test and background check, are the requirements to become a CERT member. Preparedness is very important. Please stop in the Temple Beth Or office, located in St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM to pick up a Disaster Preparedness Guide. If you are at any township event look for the CERT table and say hello. If you want to learn more, call our TBO member Joy Witt at 732-278-9008.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - for Friday night Oneg Shabbat & Saturday Kiddush. Volunteers needed to purchase food, set up and clean up. Contact Rachel at Rachelzycband@comcast.net or 732-581-4809 for more info.

HELP SUPPORT PEOPLE THROUGH THE FOOD PANTRY at St. Thomas Lutheran Church (where our TBO office is located). The church continues to go above and beyond in kindness and generosity towards our congregation in helping us continue to move forward at this difficult time. Buy a ShopRite gift card ($25, $50 or $100) from Sisterhood and donate it to the food pantry. Order by contacting Rachel Zycband Rachelzycband@comcast.net, (732-581-4809) and specify that it is to be given to the food pantry. Buying ShopRite gift cards from Sisterhood also benefits TBO.

DONATIONS OF NON-PERISHABLE FOOD for the Food Pantry - Bring food directly to a food pantry, such as the one at St. Thomas Lutheran Church, 135 Salmon Street, Brick, 732-477-5533.

AVAILABLE – The Jewish Journal (December & November issues), Shabbat/Holiday Prayer Books, Weekday Prayer Books, Chumashim, Yizkor Books of Remembrance. Available in the TBO Office or contact Rabbi Rubin (cell: 610-639-5341).

Dear Congregants:

The Ritual Committee has been actively involved with steering TBO through the Pandemic! We have gone from having only on-line services to both inperson and on-line and hopefully services continue to be meaningful for you! We are thankful that St Thomas Lutheran Church has been so generous with allowing us to use their facility and that we have been able to provide options to our congregation. Because the Church gym will be utilized on Saturday mornings, to provide in-person services at that time, TBO will use the rear section of the Church sanctuary. Also, to accommodate the Church's schedule, please note the following:

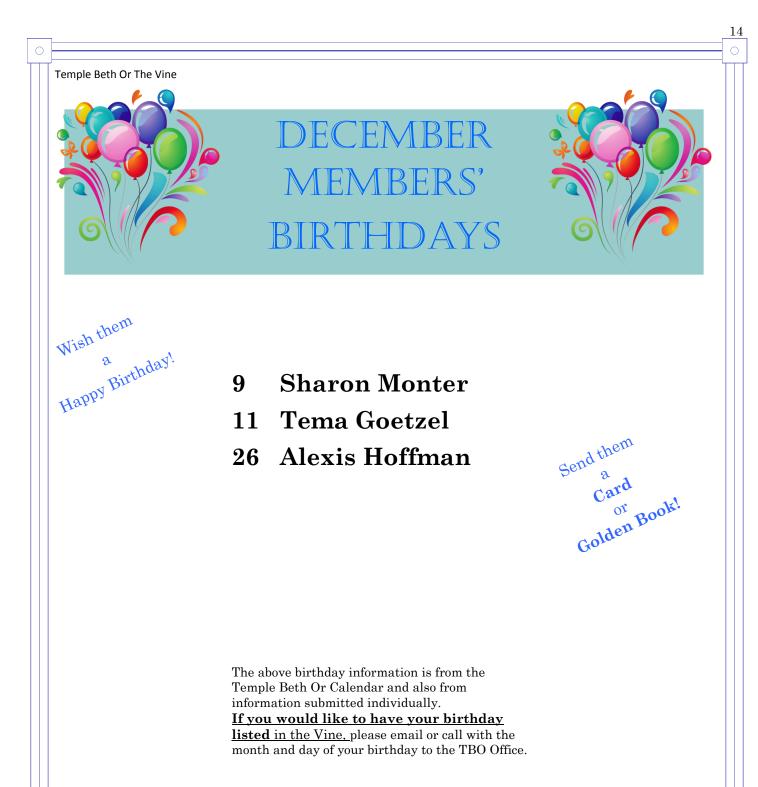

1. Shabbat services on 12/3 & 12/4 will be only on Zoom to accommodate the Church's schedule. There will be no in-person services at the Church.

2. For the months of December (other than the first weekend), January, February, and part of March, we will continue in-person services using the gym on Friday night and the last four rows of pews in the Church sanctuary for Saturday morning. On Saturday mornings, please enter through the main doors, not the gym door! We will not be able to have Kiddush on Saturday mornings, but being able to have the service is the primary concern. All services can also be accessed on Zoom, just use the links provided in Rabbi's weekly message.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me (732.674.6517) or email me at rostrove1@gmail.com or ask Sandi or Rabbi.

We look forward to seeing you! Have a happy Thanksgiving and a very happy Chanukah!

Sincerely, Robert Ostrove

MISHEBERACH PRAYER

When someone near and dear to us is ill, a spiritual uplift can be very meaningful. This is done in Jewish tradition by reciting a "Misheberach" prayer on the days we take out the Torah.

If you would like a Misheberach said and are not able to attend the service, please call Temple Beth Or's office or email us at TempleBethOrBrick@gmail.com

We need the person's Hebrew name and the mother's Hebrew name, so that a prayer will be done for you.

THE MITZVAH GROUP

Temple Beth Or's Mitzvah Group reaches out to all members. If you know of someone who needs or would like a phone call, hospital, nursing or rehab center visit, please let us know. Kindly complete the form below and mail it to the synagogue. Temple Beth Or Attention: The Mitzvah Group PO Box 789 Brick, New Jersey 08723

MISHEBERACH PRAYER REQUEST

Lighting candles on the Chanukah Menorah (the Chanukiah), spinning dreidels, singing songs, eating latkes, donuts and chocolate coins are parts of our Chanukah observances and festivities.

Reaching back into history, we also remember the origins consisted of cleaning and rededicating the Temple.

We read the names of Rabbis Rubin and Fierstien, as well as the names of our officers, in the Temple Vine. Their dedication is known to our congregation. There are members, not named, who show their dedication by attending Shabbat, holiday, and weekday services, Sisterhood, Men's Club, and Temple meetings and events. By participating, virtually or inperson, we show our dedication to our Temple Beth Or and its future.

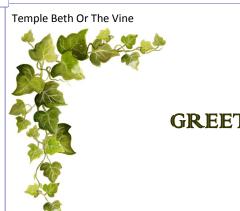

Please continue to join us as we celebrate the Festival of Lights.

The last night of Chanukah is Monday December, 6.

B'Shalom and Happy Chanukah from The Mitzvah Group.

GREETINGS FROM THE MITZVAH GROUP

Dear Fellow Congregants,

As we prepare for the secular new year on Saturday, January 1, 2022, we are reminded of the Rosh Hodesh prayer announcing the new month. This prayer expresses our new year wishes for you and our outside supporters through this issue of the Temple Beth Or Vine.

Grant us a long, peaceful life, with goodness, blessing, sustenance, and physical vitality, a life informed by purity and piety, a life free from shame and reproach, a life of abundance and honor, a life embracing piety and love of Torah, a life in which our heart's desires for goodness will be fulfilled.

Thank you for your participation in Temple Beth Or services, Men's Club and Sisterhood meetings and events. Please continue to join us in person or on Zoom.

Shalom from the Mitzvah Group.

It's time for our CAKELESS CAKE SALE

A bit of news today!

Our CAKELESS CAKE SALE is under way! In these chilly, busy, car-pooling days Who would bake? Pies? Cookies? Or even a Cake? You'd be surprised if you counted the cost of ingredients, heat and the time you have lost. Baking for a sale is extra work, yet no one really wants to shirk! So we've thought of a plan that's truly grand and feel quite sure you'll understand. In your envelope please put the price of a cake or a pie or great dessert. Without fuss or bother, you've done your part, we trust you'll give with a willing heart. This is the end of our little tale as we wish success with our

CAKELESS CAKE SALE!

Thank you for your interest and cooperation in this important fundraiser.

Please make your check payable to: Temple Beth Or Sisterhood Kindly mail your donation in an envelope to:
