A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Sandi Silber

August is here and the heat is on. We have been only on Zoom for all services because of the heat in our current venue. Temple Beth Or will continue to provide services and special events for our congregants. Look at the emails for information.

On August 17th we will learn what our options are from Brick Township. Hopefully this will allow us to begin working on the renovations of our new building so that we can be in our new home as soon as possible.

The Ritual Committee has engaged the Laurelton Fire House for the High Holidays. The room is air conditioned and large enough to keep everyone safe with enough parking spaces. So please join our congregation with Rabbi Rubin and Cantor Haimowitz to celebrate the holidays. Look to the emails and regular mail for details.

Stay cool and safe. Please read the emails and be part of our new home as soon as we open.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

From Sadness to Joy, From Trouble to Peace

The weeks ahead in the Jewish Calendar take us through our annual cycle of mourning the loss of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem (and our Jewish independence) followed by comfort and rebuilding.

The Three Weeks started with the Fast of Tammuz (this year on 18 Tammuz – July 17) and lead up to Tishah B'Av (this year on Saturday night-Sunday, August 6-7 – 10 Av) on which we commemorate the Babylonian destruction of the First Jerusalem Temple in 586 BCE and, after the Temple had been rebuilt, the Roman destruction of the Second Jerusalem Temple in 70 CE.

Both tragedies included exile of the Jewish people from the Land of Israel in addition to the suffering from the many battles. During the Nine Days (this year ten days), which began with Rosh Chodesh Av (this year on Thursday night-Friday, July 28-29), the sorrow intensifies as we get even closer to the Fast Day of Tishah B'Av. It is customary during these latter days not to have meat or wine other than on Shabbat and not to buy or put on new clothes, all considered connected to joy and happiness.

However, this Calendar cycle does not stop with the sadness of Tishah B'Av.

First, 15 Av (this year August 12) is a special celebration day called Tu B'Av (which means 15 of Av). The sages in the Mishnah called Tu B'Av and Yom Kippur the happiest days in the Jewish Calendar. Yom Kippur, though very serious, gives us the opportunity to start fresh in the new year, thus a spiritual joy. Tu B'Av commemorates a special day when it was common to make marriage proposals and arrangements (and was a mid-summer festival), thus also facilitating new beginnings and the joy that can come with that.

Second, the Three Weeks of Sadness and Mourning are followed by Seven Weeks of Comfort and Rebuilding (with seven special Haftarat, selections from the Prophets, on the seven Shabbat mornings) that take us from Tishah B'Av all the way to Rosh Hashanah (this year beginning on Sunday night, September 25) leading us in a transition toward a new beginning in the new year.

On our personal and family levels and on our Temple Beth Or congregation level, we hope to move along that path from sadness to joy, from trouble to peace, from loss to rebuilding – rebuilding our community and our lives.

May we work together to help each other along this important path.

UPCOMING EVENTS

VOLUNTEER

Be Prepared – CERT is Community Emergency Response Team, a nationwide volunteer organization which most towns have. It backs up First Responders. Members are trained on what to do before, during and after a disaster, including basic first aid, CPR, fire safety, light search & rescue and triage. CERT members have assisted with evacuations, food & water distribution, fire and Super Storm Sandy as well as at township events, such as Summerfest, Night Against Crime and Trunk or Treat. When disaster strikes, those trained are able to assist the police and EMS, help themselves and help their neighbors. Successful completion of a CERT course, which includes a written & practical test and background check, are the requirements to become a CERT member. Preparedness is very important. Please stop in the Temple Beth Or office, located in St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM to pick up a Disaster Preparedness Guide. If you are at any township event look for the CERT table and say hello. If you want to learn more, call our TBO member Joy Witt at 732-278-9008.

Tishah B'Av and Jerusalem: A Time to Remember, A City to Honor

On the 9th Day of the Jewish month of Av, we recall the destruction of Jerusalem and the Holy Temple – the first time by the Babylonians in 586 BCE and the second time by the Romans in 70 CE. It is a fast day and we read the biblical Book of Eichah (Lamentations). While observing the sadness we also appreciate Jerusalem as the capital of Israel once again, and we strengthen our bonds with modern-day Jerusalem as we recall its history.

This year, the Ninth of Av occurs on a Shabbat (Friday night-Saturday, August 5-6) so the observance of the Fast of Tishah B'Av is pushed to the next day (10 Av), Saturday night-Sunday, August 6-7, 2022.

Join us for the Tishah B'Av service with the reading of the Book of Eichah on Saturday night, August 6, 2022, at 9:00 PM.

The service will be online through Zoom with the Book of Eichah shown on the screen as we read it.

A time of sadness leads up to Tishah B'Av –

The Three Weeks – begin with the Fast of the 17th Day of Tammuz
(this year observed on 18 Tammuz – Sunday, July 17)

The Nine Days (this year actually ten days) –

begin with the Rosh Chodesh (New Moon) of Av

(this year on Thursday night-Friday, July 28-29)

During these ten days, it is customary to not have meat or wine except on Shabbat.

A time of comfort and rebuilding follows Tishah B'Av –

The Seven Weeks – from Tishah B'Av to Rosh Hashanah (New Year)
(this year beginning on Sunday night, September 25)
