A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Sandi Silber

As I open and listen to the horrible news from Texas, I could not think of anything but the need for community. After the grief, anger and frustration I felt, I wanted to hug my grandchildren and figure out a way to keep them safe. I am not that smart but I do vote.

Our community has been through trauma, but we will persevere and rebuild our building. We need to rest assured that our community is here for our congregants in need. Our doors are always open.

As we head into spring and summer, refer to the emails for upcoming events that you can enjoy.

Shavuot is coming in June. We accepted the Torah in the desert and have carried its tenets for thousands of years. What comes to mind is tikkun haolam, which tells us to heal the world. Let's step up and act. Our grandchildren depend on us.

Shavua Tov!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

Shavuot – Time to Learn, Time to Discuss, Time to Debate (and Time to Pray, too)

The Holiday of Shavuot is a major one in the Jewish Calendar, even if it is less well known to many. Shavuot is one of the Three Pilgrimage Festivals (Shalosh Regalim) – Pesach, Shavuot and Sukkot.

In addition to Holiday Prayers and Services, Shavuot has a special custom of including study sessions, traditionally all night long on the First Night (called Tikkun Layl Shavuot).

We at Temple Beth Or plan to have one special learning session rather than go all night long, and we plan to have it on the First Day of Shavuot in the afternoon on the eve of the Second Night (as the First Night starts late since it is on a Saturday night after Shabbat ends). See page 7.

The topic of this year's study session is "Pro-Life or Pro-Choice – What Does Judaism Say?" which once again is high on the general public agenda.

This issue is an ancient one, yet also very modern and extremely current with the anticipation of the United States Supreme Court's upcoming ruling.

Do the Jewish sources teach us to be Pro-Life or to be Pro-Choice? Is there a middle ground? Is it possible to be both?

These are the questions that we need to learn about, to discuss and even possibly to debate, all within the realm of respect for each other and for those who may disagree with us.

Come join us for Shavuot Prayer and Study. See the special page in this issue of the The Vine for the Shavuot Schedule.

Have a happy Shavuot Holiday – Chag Sameach!

FAREWELL FROM SISTERHOOD 2019 - 2022 PRESIDENT MARLENE VOGEL

It's time for me to say goodbye as your Sisterhood President. I have been President for the past 3 years during a very unpredictable time with the selling of our building and the pandemic. During this time period I have learned a lot by going with the flow and making snap decisions that affected the members so that they would be safe but still enjoy getting together or meeting on Zoom. I have been very fortunate to have Board Members who were very supportive and worked diligently. Also thank you to Rabbi Rubin for working the computer so that the people at home could participate and watch on Zoom. Thank you to Sandi Silber, President of our congregation - you have been supportive, helpful during my term and guiding me when I needed it. I want to thank everyone who helped and supported me these past years. I'm leaving all of you in good hands with the future President of Sisterhood, Deanna Burke.

Stay well and thank you for all your support.

Emergency Campaign to help the Jews of Ukraine during this crisis – You can contribute through the Jewish Federation of Ocean County to help the Joint Distribution Committee and other agencies who are already on the ground working in Ukraine. There are possibly upwards of 300,000 Jews in Ukraine, 40,000 of whom are vulnerable and/or elderly. Our partners at the JDC provide services at more than 1000 locations throughout the country and they work with all partners, including Chabad, Hillel and the International Fellowship of Christians and Jews. Many who are able have already made their way to the western part of the country, with several thousand crossing into Poland or Romania. Needs of these refugees has yet to be determined, and there will likely be thousands more as this conflict progresses. The Jewish Federation of Ocean County is already sending funds, but the more we raise, the more we can help. All contributions raised will be sent directly to our partners doing important work in response to this crisis. Checks payable to JFOC can be mailed to 1235A Highway 70, Lakewood, NJ 08701; memo: Ukraine Emergency Fund.

VOLUNTEER

Be Prepared – CERT is Community Emergency Response Team, a nationwide volunteer organization which most towns have. It backs up First Responders. Members are trained on what to do before, during and after a disaster, including basic first aid, CPR, fire safety, light search & rescue and triage. CERT members have assisted with evacuations, food & water distribution, fire and Super Storm Sandy as well as at township events, such as Summerfest, Night Against Crime and Trunk or Treat. When disaster strikes, those trained are able to assist the police and EMS, help themselves and help their neighbors. Successful completion of a CERT course, which includes a written & practical test and background check, are the requirements to become a CERT member. Preparedness is very important. Please stop in the Temple Beth Or office, located in St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM to pick up a Disaster Preparedness Guide. If you are at any township event look for the CERT table and say hello. If you want to learn more, call our TBO member Joy Witt at 732-278-9008.

GREETINGS FROM THE MITZVAH GROUP

Dear Fellow Congregants;

Are You An Active Member?

*Are you an active member,
the kind that would be missed?*

Or are you just contented that your name is on the list?

*Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock,
or do you stay home, then criticize and knock?*

*Do you take an active part to help the work along,
or are you merely satisfied to simply just belong?*

Do you ever work on committees to see what makes them tick, or leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique?

*So come to the meetings and help with hand and heart,
Don't just be a member but take an active part.*

*Won't you think this over,
you know right from wrong,
Are you an active member
or do you just belong?*

Author Unknown

Let us share at Temple Beth Or for a meaningful and enjoyable future.

Shalom.
