

Meet the Author

right from your home on Zoom featuring

David Abromowitz author of The Foxtail Legacy
(and early TBO member)

Sunday, March 12, 2023

9:00 AM – Morning Minyan

10:00 AM – Author's Presentation

on

Encountering Our Immigrant Ancestors Through Fiction

Sponsored by the Men's Club

Open to the whole community

Men's Club Business Meeting following the program

No charge – RSVP to TBO to receive the Zoom link

Call 732-458-4700 or email templebethorbrick@gmail.com

about the book . . .

In his debut novel, The Foxtail Legacy, David Abromowitz portrays a multigenerational family saga, spanning from Russia under the Czars, to South Africa in the era of the Boer, to the American immigrant experience of the early 20th century, including living at the Jersey Shore.

about the author . . .

David's parents, Roz and Joe Abromowitz, were among the founding members of Temple Beth Or, with Roz serving as one of the early Presidents of the Temple's precursor, the Shore Jewish Women's Club. David grew up with the congregation building its sukkah in his Point Pleasant Beach backyard before the Van Zile Road building was built. He and his two brothers (Jan, z"l and Philip) all celebrated becoming Bar Mitzvah in the congregation.

The Foxtail Legacy is available through Amazon and other online sellers, and any independent bookstore should be able to order it.

For more information about the author and the book, visit www.abromowitz.net.

