A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Dr. Sharon Monter

August brings us the 15th of Av, which is described as a mysterious day. Mysterious because Jewish Law doesn't reveal any observances or customs for this date, except for the fact that the confession of sins should be omitted from the daily prayers and that one should increase their study of Torah.

The Talmud tells us that the "daughters of Jerusalem would go dance in the vineyards" on the 15th of Av and "whoever did not have a wife would go there" to find himself a bride. The Talmud considers this the greatest festival of the year, with Yom Kippur a close second.

We continue to prepare our new building and make preparations for the High Holidays. I encourage everyone to dance in the vineyards, increase their study of Torah and join us for weekly services.

Thank you.

Sharon I. Monter, DPM

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

Vacation – What Are We Vacating?

The summer is a time when many people take a vacation. It is interesting to think about that.

In many work environments, vacation time may be built into the worker-employer agreement. The job may include a certain number of days in which the worker is expected to not come into work, whether they actually go out of town or stay at home. In this situation, the worker is “vacating” their work environment and going to another environment, thus the term “going on a vacation” which implies going to a new destination/location in which to spend their time.

In Jewish tradition, we have a system of time in which we work at various things for six days and then take a special day – Shabbat – in which we vacate from the secular/work and go to a new place of holy time. Shabbat gives us a weekly one-day vacation. The ancient Romans thought that we, as Jews, were lazy taking a weekly one-day vacation. Over time, humans realized the importance of doing just that. In many societies, the cycle is five days of work and two days of a weekly vacation and not just one!

Some people travel for their vacation, literally “going” to somewhere new and vacating from their usual home. Some people stay home and go on what is called a “staycation” perhaps doing different things than their usual routine. Shabbat is a weekly staycation – staying home yet having a different routine.

This year, during August, I will be on vacation. However, we do not travel much, so we will be having a staycation. So, we plan to be around, yet do things somewhat differently.

As a result of this staycation, and also of the summer heat, Temple Beth Or will be having Friday night Shabbat services in-person in the small meeting room (which is air conditioned!) at St. Thomas Lutheran Church, and congregants will be leading the service while I remain at home. There will not be a Zoom connection. Saturday morning Shabbat services will be on Zoom only and not in-person, to which I can connect from home like anyone else. Here, too, congregants will be leading the services. I can “vacate” the usual routine and yet “stay” together with the community.

The Thursday online Hebrew Reading Class will take a break in August. Plan to join us in September on Thursdays at 7:00-8:30 PM in which we will read and discuss passages from the Torah, from the Prayer Book and from a modern Hebrew newsletter. If you know the Hebrew letters and vowels, then this is the class for you. If you need to learn to read Hebrew from the beginning, join that in-person class in October on Tuesdays at 10:30 AM. Watch for more information.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

If you have a concern or want to discuss something with me, do not take a vacation from that during August. Call me or email me and we can discuss whatever. If there is a life cycle event or an emergency during August, contact me as I do not want to “vacate” those opportunities. Also, I am continuing to work during August on preparations for the High Holidays as we certainly do not want to “vacate” them.

Summer may be a time for vacations, yet we continue to stay connected. May the remainder of the summer and of the Jewish year of 5783 be filled with positive things for all of us as we together look forward to the new Jewish year of 5784!

I would like to welcome everyone to Sisterhood 2023-2024. Many of you know me but for those who don't, my name is Marlene Vogel and I was re-elected as Sisterhood President. I had one year off, but I'm back in the drivers seat. Deanna Burke was President last year and did a fabulous job.

We are starting to plan our year with educational and fun programs. Our Paid Up Meeting kicks off the year on September 5, 2023. Hope each and every woman plans to attend. This year we will have some meetings and functions on a Sunday afternoon so that those who don't drive at night will be able to attend those functions and meetings. The dates of all meetings and functions will be made available at the Paid Up Meeting, so please come.

We hope all of the women of Temple Beth Or will come and meet new and old friends. Looking forward to being with each and everyone of you. If you have any suggestions for programs, please contact me or the office.

Enjoy the rest of the summer.

Be Prepared – CERT is Community Emergency Response Team, a nationwide volunteer organization which most towns have. It backs up First Responders. Members are trained on what to do before, during and after a disaster, including basic first aid, CPR, fire safety, light search & rescue and triage. CERT members have assisted with evacuations, food & water distribution, fire and Super Storm Sandy as well as at township events, such as Summerfest, Night Against Crime and Trunk or Treat. When disaster strikes, those trained are able to assist the police and EMS, help themselves and help their neighbors. Successful completion of a CERT course, which includes a written & practical test and background check, are the requirements to become a CERT member. Preparedness is very important. Please stop in the Temple Beth Or office, located in St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM to pick up a Disaster Preparedness Guide. If you are at any township event look for the CERT table and say hello. If you want to learn more, call our TBO member Joy Witt at 732-278-9008.
