A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

A New Year – Can You Believe it?

I remember when I was a child seeing a joke in a children's joke book (I can still picture the drawing that went with the joke) – Why did the boy throw a clock out the window? Because he wanted to see time fly!

Every Saturday night after Havdalah we wish each other “Shavua Tov” – Have a good week! Then, it seems, before we know it and before we turn around, it is Thursday, and we are already thinking about the coming Shabbat and weekend starting in just one day!

Soon to come is January 1, 2024. Does it not seem like we just celebrated January 1, 2023? The year seems like it went by so fast.

As we look back over 2023, we think about things that were accomplished and opportunities that were missed – in our own lives, in the life of our community and in the world in general.

As we look ahead to 2024, we think about what could happen and what we would like to happen - in our own lives, in the life of our community and in the world in general.

All of that is a lot to contemplate over a two-day period of December 31-January 1. It may even feel like the two days of Rosh Hashanah in the Jewish calendar, though there are obvious differences.

As we approach January 1, let us remember that TODAY IS THE FIRST DAY OF THE REST OF OUR LIVES – for us, for Temple Beth Or and for the society and world around us. Let us move forward together as we begin a new year.

Best wishes for a good new year!

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2024!

It's time for our CAKELESS CAKE SALE

A bit of news today!

Our CAKELESS CAKE SALE is under way!
 In these chilly, busy, car-pooling days
 Who would bake? Pies? Cookies? Or even a Cake?
 You'd be surprised if you counted the cost of ingredients,
 heat and the time you have lost.

Baking for a sale is extra work, yet no one really wants to shirk!

So we've thought of a plan that's truly grand and feel quite sure you'll understand. In your envelope please put the price of a cake or a pie or great dessert.

Without fuss or bother, you've done your part,
 we trust you'll give with a willing heart.

This is the end of our little tale as we wish success with our CAKELESS CAKE SALE!

Thank you for your interest and cooperation in this important fundraiser.

Be Prepared – CERT is Community Emergency Response Team, a nationwide volunteer organization which most towns have. It backs up First Responders. Members are trained on what to do before, during and after a disaster, including basic first aid, CPR, fire safety, light search & rescue and triage. CERT members have assisted with evacuations, food & water distribution, fire and Super Storm Sandy as well as at township events, such as Summerfest, Night Against Crime and Trunk or Treat. When disaster strikes, those trained are able to assist the police and EMS, help themselves and help their neighbors. Successful completion of a CERT course, which includes a written & practical test and background check, are the requirements to become a CERT member. Preparedness is very important. Please stop in the Temple Beth Or office, located in St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM to pick up a Disaster Preparedness Guide. If you are at any township event look for the CERT table and say hello. If you want to learn more, call our TBO member Joy Witt at 732-278-9008.
