Temple Beth Or
(Hebrew for "House of Light")

Temple Beth Or is an egalitarian inclusive Conservative congregation, modern yet reverent to the Jewish tradition. The congregation is made up of singles, couples and families. We welcome all members of our community, including interfaith families, and feel that a congregation should be a friendly welcoming place and the anchor of a caring community. It reaches out to its members relating to their needs and interests and to the larger Jewish and general community as well. Temple Beth Or is affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR RABBI

By Rabbi Robert Rubin

Reflections on the Past and Future

For a small congregation, Temple Beth Or does a lot.

We have:

- Ongoing prayer services (Shabbat, holiday and weekday)
- Sisterhood Meetings and programs (such as Women's Seder, Hamantaschen Baking, Sisterhood Shabbat Service and Dinner, Rosh Hashanah Honey, Simcha Shop, ShopRite gift cards and others)
- Men's Club Meetings and projects (such as Yom Hashoah Candles, Men's Club Shabbat Service and others)
- Temple projects (such as Purim Mishloach Manot Gift Bags, annual personalized Calendar, Yizkor Book of Remembrance and others)
- Adult education offerings and
- Mitzvah Group outreach

We are now looking forward to being in our new building which will open potential opportunities to do even more.

We can begin to envision what more we can do IN ADDITION TO what we already do:

- Shabbat Lunch Kiddushes (some with special programs such as Lunch and Learn)
- Interest groups who meet on a regular basis (such as knitting and other crafts)
- In-person adult learning classes on a variety of subjects in varied time slots to accommodate people's schedules
- Music concert programs and
- more

June is a month with many graduations. Graduations are not just marking the end of an era (school years) but serve as a transition to a new era (post-school years). Shavuot comes this month on 6-7 Sivan (this year on Tuesday night-Thursday, June 11-13). Shavuot not only marks the end of the 49 days of the counting of the Omer. It also celebrates the Torah at Mount Sinai and the next era of the Jewish people after gaining freedom from Egypt and slavery.

Temple Beth Or is moving from one era (at 200 Van Zile Road) to begin a new era (at 109 Pier Avenue). Let us celebrate this transition and look forward to the future.

We invite you to suggest to us your ideas on what we can do going forward so that Temple Beth Or can remain a vital part of your life and of the community.
